

How to be an outstanding Trainer

Key Features:

- ✓ How to get your message across and woo the audience
- ✓ Packed with ideas and tips to adapt and use immediately
- ✓ Andy unlocks the secrets of 20 years' of training and feedback from 35,000 delegates

What is outstanding training?

Unpicking the difference between good and outstanding
Techniques to ensure that your audience remain engaged with your subject matter
How to plan and construct your presentation to maximise impact

Learn the skills of outstanding public speaking

Develop your confidence with different types of presentations
Learn to lead a discussion and facilitate adult learning
Engage all personality types and senses of audience
Create your own unique training style

Practical tools and tips to make an immediate impact

- 20 favourite ice-breakers and plenaries that your audience will not have seen before
- The training rubric
- The top ten tips to using visual aids
- Create courses that are activity-based rather than materials-based
- Ideas for activities that always work
- Using props to emphasise a point

The 10 myths about successful training

Become aware of how you might be killing your message
Traps for inexperienced trainers and how to avoid them

"Energetic presentation, motivating, empowering dynamic and lots of ideas. Practiced what he preached." - Barbara Ward, The Kings School

Booking details and fee: Contact us for details

BOOK NOW!

Call us: 07792 504588

Email us: hello@malit.org.uk

Visit us: www.malit.org.uk

Motivated and Loving It!,
9 Park View, Waterloo,
Liverpool, L22 2AP.
Tel: 07792 504588
Email: hello@malit.org.uk
Web: www.malit.org.uk

