

Project Based Learning

Key Features:

- ✓ Step-by-step guidance for leading rigorous project-based learning.
- ✓ Assessment of outcomes - monitoring and management made easy.
- ✓ How to prepare the new KS3 curriculum, functional skills and 14-19 proposed changes.

Project-based learning and the new learning agenda

- Independent learning.
- Critical thinking.
- Authentic researching.

Explore case studies of successful project-based learning.
Effective project learning can be used effectively for GCSE.

New methodologies to develop independent learning, critical thinking and authentic research

Facilitation techniques to develop skills and positive work attitudes.
Effective group management to improve performance across the class.
Tips for managing student learning and behaviour during projects:
• warning signs • questioning techniques • intervention strategies.

The SPAM FC model for effective project management

• Starting • Planning • Assessing • Monitoring • Finishing • Celebrating.
25 practical methods for assessment and reflection.
Games and activities that will develop your students' ability to generate ideas.

Techniques to improve student planning skills

Building an electronic portfolio.
Transforming learning throughout the curriculum.
Create projects that will have relevance across the curriculum.
Develop students skills for using ICT.
Widen students' presentation techniques and sense of audience.

Course
manual & electronic resources available.

"An excellent course, which moved me from interested to enthusiastic."

Sue Prior, SS John Fisher & Thomas More RC High School

Booking details and fee: Contact us for details

BOOK NOW!

Call us: 07792 504588

Email us: hello@malit.org.uk

Visit us: www.malit.org.uk

Motivated and Loving It!,
9 Park View, Waterloo,
Liverpool, L22 2AP.
Tel: 07792 504588
Email: hello@malit.org.uk
Web: www.malit.org.uk

